Malolo Island Resort Voted Best Kids Club or Nannies in Fiji for Australian Families in the Out & About With Kids Magazine Annual Readers Choice Awards 2023

Australia's renowned family travel magazine, Out & About with Kids, (OAWK) announced the results of its 13th annual Readers Choice Awards 2023. The Awards received nominations from well-travelled families around Australia for the best local and international family resorts, holiday parks, family attractions, ski resorts, overall destinations, cruises and road trips and of course, kids clubs. Malolo is thrilled to be the shining star of the Fiji Islands in this category for the 2nd time.

Ahura Resorts Managing Director Tony Whitton said, "We are delighted and honoured to win this award again, and to be recognised by the OAWK readers and our past guests. As a 100% Fijian owned resort, the Malolo team takes particular pride in ensuring all guests and families experience the magic of Malolo and the "real" Fiji in their own unique and special way – and none more so, than in our Kids Club. "

In keeping with offering a quintessential, barefoot Fijian island holiday experience, Malolo's Tia's Treehouse Kids Club has created a program which immerses kids - in a fun, innovative and educational way, into Fijian island life, including a focus on the environment, the culture and the history of Malolo and Fiji in general.

There's a different theme each day ie Marine and Natural Environments, Fijian Culture, Coconut Trees, Tradition, Fijian Food and Arts and Crafts. Some of the activities include: focus on herbal medicine and endangered species, fish feeding, Iguana and other fauna talks, traditional costume making and face painting, Fijian language lessons, Fijian childhood games and much more.

Malolo Island Resort is located in Fiji's Mamanuca archipelago just 25km/16m west of Nadi International Airport and is accessible by three-times daily fast catamaran or chartered water taxis running 24/7. This 100% Fijian family-owned resort has been a long-time favourite for families and couples alike, and over the years has welcomed back tens of thousands of return visitors.

An intimate, colonial, stylish resort, it comprises just nine acres of the 2000 acre island and consists of only 46 Bures - all with ocean views, three dining venues, spa, entertainment lounges for adults and teenagers, two pools – including one for families and one for adults only with a swim-up pool bar, cabana daybed and al fresco lounge area, plus a myriad activities including, snorkelling, diving, island hopping, dolphin spotting and local village visits.
